

Published based on Builders: Stimulus fell short

Builders: Stimulus fell short

The $787 billion federal stimulus is winding down and although the state and local governments received money to supplement tight budgets and improve infrastructure, Southern Nevada contractors and other companies said it didn't have the benefit they desired.

You can also find this article published on Builders: Stimulus fell short