

Published based on Mike Matusow captures Tournament of Champions chip lead

Mike Matusow captures Tournament of Champions chip lead

Mike "The Mouth" Matusow hasn't enjoyed this summer's World Series of Poker as much as usual. Matusow, a Las Vegas professional, was at the Rio nearly every day for the first three weeks of the series, but failed to cash in any of the first 37 events. He finally broke through in last week's $10,000 Pot-Limit Hold'em World Championship when he finished 26th for $21,665.

You can also find this article published on Mike Matusow captures Tournament of Champions chip lead